

La Paz Area Shopping Guide

Our list of local stores where you can shop for gifts for your friends and family, and for yourself!

When you move to La Paz from another country, part of the challenge is figuring out where to shop. Most of us rely on word of mouth, but when you're new to the area and don't know anyone, it can be tough to find what you need, when you need it. So whether you need to shop for necessities, for gifts for your friends and family back home, or you just love shopping, we've compiled our La Paz Area Shopping Guide. This list is by no means exhaustive. La Paz is a big city, and there are literally hundreds of stores, so in the spirit of the holidays, we've focused our list on places to buy gifts. We've also included online options specific to Mexico. Don't see a store or resource in our list? Send us your recommendations at info@bajaliferealty.com. We love discovering new places!
